PETITION TO WITHDRAW ABANDONMENT

Dear Sir:

Pursuant to the Manual of Patent Examining Procedure ("MPEP"), § 711.03(c), the Applicant respectfully requests that the U.S. Patent and Trademark Office ("Office") hereby withdraw its holding of abandonment as to the above-referenced Application on the grounds of failure to receive Office Action. On or about June 2, 2003, we filed an Office Action Response with the Office in response to the Examiner's Office Action of January 3, 2003. On July 7, 2004, we first learned that, unbeknownst to us or the Applicant, the Office sent a Final Office Action on or about August 20, 2003, and thereafter issued a Notice of Abandonment on or about March 17, 2004. Neither we, nor the Applicant, ever received these communications.

In an overabundance of caution, I have caused the file jacket and all docket and file records to be checked to confirm the above communications were not received. I confirm that these communications were never received by this Firm. For the Office's convenience, we include a copy of the Docket Record, attached as Exhibit "A", in this matter which also reflects that the above communications were never received by this Firm.

Given the above, it is respectfully requested that the holding of abandonment be withdrawn, and that the Final Office Action be remailed with a renewed statutory period for reply.

Respectfully Submitted,

Dennis S. Morris
